Different procedures applicable for Member States (ERDF regulations) and Partner Countries (Tacis regulations) in the field of:

- Contracting;
- Implementation and monitoring;
- Financial flows

All procedures for Member States and partner countries stipulated in the same joint documents.

Contracting, implementation/monitoring and financial issues – identical for all Programme stakeholders

Many Contracting Authorities

- For (ERDF) beneficiaries (Intermediary Body – the relevant Voivodosips Office;
- For Tacis beneficiaries Delegation of the European Commission to Ukraine

One Contracting Authority

For all beneficiaries (Polish, Ukrainian and Belarusian)
The role of the Contracting Authority is assigned to the Joint Managing Authority – Ministry of Regional Development of Republic of Poland

Separate ERDF and TACIS budgets

ERDF budget (37,8 million EUR) available only for Polish beneficiaries

Tacis budget available for all Programme beneficiaries (Polish, Belarusian and Ukraine)

One Programme budget
(186,2 million EUR)
available on equal basis for all Programme beneficiaries (Polish, Belarusian and Ukrainian)

The same „time constraints”
for contracting, implementation and disbursement for ERDF projects

For all projects:

- Contracting period till the end of 2013;
- Implementation period till the end of 2014;
- Disbursement period till the
end of 2016

Projects, co-financed from ERDF only could be submitted continuously

Call for Proposals with the exact deadline for all projects (PRAG)

Call for Proposals with the exact deadline for TACIS projects (PRAG)

Different payments schemes for ERDF projects (reimbursement of the costs incurred) and for TACIS projects (advance payment(s) and forecast final payment)

The same payments schemes applicable to all beneficiaries

Two bodies responsible for Programme monitoring and final projects selection:

Monitoring Committee

Steering Committee

One body responsible for both Programme monitoring and final project selection:

Joint Monitoring Committee
